

Minutes of the March 15, 2022 EVQG Meeting

The meeting was held at the Goodyear Building and was opened by President Sylvia Miller.

Program chairperson Donna Cusick introduced Terry Powers, a guild member, who did a trunk show of her Buggy Barn quilts. Terry also explained briefly how these to use the patterns. Anyone who is interested in taking a class on this technique should tell Donna.

Cynthia Scott will be in charge of coordinating the Creative Stitchery classes offered through the library. If you have a quilting or stitching skill that you would volunteer to teach on a Saturday, let Cynthia know. These classes will be open to the public and will cost participants $10 each.

We still need a photographer to be in charge of taking pictures during the program and show and tell.

Nancy Hutcheson is interested in getting members to contribute Ukraine heart blocks to quilts to be sent to Ukraine refugees. Jean Freese has volunteered to piece them together. Quilts will be due in August.

Quilt Camps for the remainder of the year are April 4-7, July 11-14, and September 12-15.

Upcoming programs include the following:

- April - Kristie McDonough with Cotton Farm with theme “Modern Meets Novelty”. Class to follow next day.
- May - Sheri Branka
- June - Velma’s Garden
- October - Pat Earwood

We will be meeting at the Goodyear Building during the months of May, June, and October.

Anyone with any Sunshine information should send a text message to Joy Smith. Be sure to put your name with the text.

Kathy Hill stated that cat beds made of fleece and flannel were needed for Kitty Up as well as Meals on Wheels placemats, and lap quilts for the Hope Center.

The next upcoming newsletter and updated website password will only be sent to those with current membership.

Dates for Quilt Show are October 13-15 with setup dates of October 11-12. All members should plan to help out with the show. More information will be coming soon with a chance for members to sign up for various jobs..

There was a total of 41 present with 1 guest.

See Jean Freese if you have issues with the website.

Following door prizes and Show and Tell, the meeting was adjourned.
